About 100 troops were inserving the trench positions in the training area near the Droegen-Fuerstenberg road, while another 100 troops engaged in entrenching work and 100 troops drilled on the other side of the road between the highway and the railroad line. Numerous reports of infantry weapons, machine guns, and artillery pieces were heard from the Carlshorst firing range. At about 1 p.m. on 50 troops entered the installation from the direction of the firing range; on this day, reports of only machine guns and carbines were heard from the firing range. An undetermined number of troops reconditioned telephone lines on the Fuerstenberg-Berlin road.	25X1 25X1
